Forensic Accountant Elected to Lee County Legal Aid Society Board

FORT MYERS, FL — May 13, 2014 — The board of directors of the Lee County Legal Aid Society recently elected Leslea G. Ellis to the board. A Certified Public Accountant and Certified Fraud Examiner, Ellis is the owner of Leslea Ellis, LLC, a CPA firm serving accounting and tax clients in the greater Southwest Florida area. Established in 2013, the firm specializes in fraud examination and forensic accounting litigation support for the entire state of Florida.

“I am honored to be a part of this worthy organization and to help support those in need in the area of family law,” commented Ellis.

For more than 40 years, the Lee County Legal Aid Society has worked to ensure equal justice to all by providing legal representation to residents who cannot afford it in family law proceedings including divorce, dependency, custody, and paternity.
